

University of Cincinnati Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities (UC CEDD) will offer a five-week training course, "Caring for Children and Youth with Developmental Disabilities," on Monday evenings (see details below from UC CEDD) beginning October 9, 2017.

This program supports an important goal of members of The Arc of Dearborn County—to help our loved ones build relationships and community by way of training individuals who have genuine interest in assisting others who have developmental disabilities.

To cover the course fee, we're offering five $100 scholarships to (female and male) high school and college students who have a sincere interest in completing this course and who live in southeastern Indiana. You must have your own transportation.

Interested individuals should contact The Arc of Dearborn County by email: info@dearborncountycarc.org

Please note (or copy and paste) in subject line: UC CEDD Scholarship Interest

In the email body we'd appreciate if you tell us more about your interest.

Deadline for scholarship applications is noon Monday, October 2, 2017.

Applicant selection will be based on the first five serious inquiries received. If you have previously submitted your registration, please let us know and we will reimburse you as one of the first five.
